Hong Kong Lawyers List

This list (in alphabetical order for ease of reference) is provided for the information of Australian travellers and those needing assistance in Hong Kong. Every effort has been made to ensure its accuracy, but it does not purport to be an exhaustive list.

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) has prepared this list from information publicly available regarding lawyers practising in Hong Kong. By providing this information, DFAT is not endorsing any of the lawyers named in the list or making any representation as to their willingness or ability to carry out legal work. DFAT does not accept any responsibility for the quality of work performed by any lawyer on this list.

The list is updated once or twice per year. If you would like to provide feedback on this list please email the Australian Consulate-General Hong Kong at consular.hongkong@dfat.gov.au.

Duty Lawyer Scheme

The Duty Lawyer Scheme provides legal representation by qualified lawyers in private practice to eligible defendants appearing in all Magistrates Courts, Juvenile Courts and Coroners Courts. The Service has its Court Liaison Office in each and every Magistrates Court in Hong Kong. A defendant wishing to apply for the service of the Scheme should approach the Court Liaison Office of the Magistracy where he / she will appear. Defendants held in custody are automatically contacted by the staff of the Court Liaison Office offering the service on the day of their first court appearance.
