COMPLETING THE FORM

Passport application step-by-step guides can be found at hongkong.china.embassy.gov.au/hkng/passports.html

- ✓ Application forms can be printed at (blank forms cannot be downloaded) ppol.passports.gov.au/web/forms/entrypoint.aspx
- ✓ Witnesses are required for child applications. Witnesses cannot be related to the applicant by birth or by marriage. This means no sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, cousins and in-laws of any kind are permitted to sign.
- ✓ Guarantors are required for all applicants using PC8 forms. Guarantors cannot be related to the applicant by birth or by marriage. Your guarantor must either have a current Australian Passport with at least two years validity from the issue date; OR if you live in Hong Kong or Macau, be currently employed in one of the below capacities:
 - Accountants with membership of an association e.g. HKICPA
 - Bailiffs & Sheriffs
 - Barrister, Solicitors & Patent Attorney
 - Chartered Professional Engineers
 - Civil Servants - with at least 5 years continuous full-time service
 - Clerk of Courts or Petty Sessions
 - Dentists
 - Judges and Stipendiary Magistrates
 - Registered Marriage Celebrants
 - Members of the Chartered Institute of Company Secretaries
 - Registered Pharmacists
 - Registered Chiropractors
 - Registered Physiotherapists
 - Registered Optometrists
 - Registered Mid-wives
 - Police Officers - with at least 5 years continuous full-time service
 - Postal Managers
 - Registered Medical Practitioners (Doctors and GPs only)
 - Registered Nurses
 - Registered Veterinary Surgeons
 - Registered Teachers - with at least 5 years continuous full-time service

Domestic helpers cannot sign as witnesses as they are required by Hong Kong Labour Law to reside at their employer's address.

WHAT TO BRING

- ✓ Documents provided at interview (e.g. birth certificate, citizenship certificate), must be originals even if provided with a previous passport application. We cannot accept copies or certified copies. Any supporting documents in a language other than English must be accompanied by a full English language translation provided by a registered translation service.
- ✓ Citizenship proof is required for all applicants using PC8 forms. This varies depending on when and where the applicant was born. For detailed information, see your application form or visit www.passports.gov.au/passportexplained/theapplicationprocess/eligibilityoverview/Pages/confirmingcitizenship.aspx
- ✓ Personal Identification if you are over 18 and completing a PC8 form, you need to provide three forms of identification, including government-issued photo ID, credit card/ATM card, proof of address (bank statements/utility bills). If you are unable to provide these, we cannot process your application until you can prove your identity.
- ✓ Photograph requirements are strict. Some photo shops may not have the most updated Australian passport photo specifications. Home-printed photos are usually not acceptable. Please carefully check the Passport photo guidelines on the application form or www.passports.gov.au/passportexplained/theapplicationprocess/passportphotographguidelines. We do not have a photo machine at the Consulate.

The "crown of the head" is where the top of your skull would be if it were visible. It is not the top of your hair or the start of your hairline. Picture yourself bald and measure from the top of your skull to the tip of your chin.

LODGING YOUR APPLICATION
